

God Stories

Life is a combination of stories !

Noi ,picture above, was a skinny small boy when he first arrived at Happy Home in Poipet, along with his sister, Phanya . Their parents died when they were real small. Noi sure loved to talk and fish and always had a smile, but a temper to be reckoned with!

After 13 years at Happy Home he graduated high school and headed to Phnom Penh to earn a degree in Electronics! Mission accomplished in a few months! What is more accomplished is his heart for the little brothers at Happy Home ! He has turned out to be a very considerate ,helpful young godly man! He helps Sadudee with paper work that needs to be turned in at Phnom Penh, he loves cooking fish for the kids on his visit back home. He blossomed into a fine young man ,who goes to church on his own and is probably going to get engaged to a fine bible seminary student soon. (Actually after older sister Phanya gets married this June!)

Phanya , Noi's sister , finished high school , went to a 2 year Bible school and did a DTS as well and is on staff with Sadudee at the Poipet home. Plus she met a good christian guy there and is about to get married June 2, 2023!!! Lord willing they will continue as staff here at our home. What started off as two scrawny orphans God has blessed their lives and they are a blessing to Cambodia!! Only God could do that eh?

with Wan-nai

Recently someone asked me what we have doing spiritually for the kids at our homes . Here are some more stories I shared with him.

You may already know our mission statement “ Raising Kids, Building lives ,Following Christ” . We take it serious raising our kids, providing for them, loving them when nobody really wanted them so we look provide a family, loving atmosphere, just like any other mom and dad. Building their lives with education, life skills and social and emotional preparation is also a good challenge and we pray and do our best. In our hearts of hearts as staff , as leaders is to guide them spiritually, to know God thru His Son Jesus Christ and they would love the Lord and follow Him.

Discipleship and sharing the gospel is our primary purpose for having these homes! We encourage the kids to attend the youth gatherings, serving in their local churches and doing outreaches to lost tribal villages, the poor and the needy. And really there are so many amazing stories and testimonies that I could spend all my time just sharing!!!!!! But I love getting in the trenches more than writing emails! My bad! 😊

For example just a couple of months ago the Chiangsean did outreaches to families at a rally bad dump and then they went to a village and had their older kids share Jesus with a smaller group of kids! We call this on the job train of making disciple that know how to reproduce! A few picture to make you smile!

That is Surat in the white shirt, Gino in a blue shirt and Nina in a pink blouse, all Chiangsean teenagers practicing sharing Jesus! Then there was the Chiangrai teenagers, about 15 of them went to a Hmong village to share Jesus as well! Or how about at our MMF School in the slum sharing the gospel and celebrating Christmas with 180 kids.

Each one of these/ our kids has a story ! So many to tell but we can rejoice in God's faithfulness to the orphans. Plus how He restores their destiny and hopefully they let His love reach others .

This March was spectacular! We started with a great Thai MMF board meeting. Then I took off to Cambodia to join the Poipet kids to an beautiful island in Cambodia. It was a good time of fishing, swimming and bible! Pictures of that are on my Instagram.

Then on March 23rd the Thai leadership had the opportunity to go to Osaka, Japan for a leadership seminar!

God bless you my friends, may you experience His presense and love for you during Easter!

More than grateful,

Rose,Staff and the kids!
